Keep going! We want to know more...

So, what do you do when you're not studying?

In 250 words or less, give specific examples of extracurricular activities in which you were involved during high school such as arts (music, drama, dance, etc.), sports or athletics, paid work, school clubs, etc. Include an accurate estimate of the number of hours spent on each with a grand total at the end.

A large, empty dark blue rectangular area intended for the student to write their response to the question about extracurricular activities.

How are you involved in the community?

In 250 words or less, describe community service projects in which you were involved. This might include volunteer work to help in your neighborhood, school, church or community in which you helped to improve the lives and well-being of others. Again, give an accurate estimate of the hours spent on each with a grand total at the end.

Almost done! We're excited to hear from you.

Care to elaborate?

Submit a 500 word essay describing the financial necessity of this scholarship. We understand that almost all students would like to spare their parents the burden of educational expenses. Please indicate other special circumstances as to why you might need financial aid. Also address any of the following topics which may apply to you:

- The college or university you plan/hope to attend and your reason for that choice.
- Your expected course of study and career goals.
- Any challenges (other than financial) that you are facing (physical, family, etc.) and how you are coping with them.
- The variety of your hobbies, skills, talents, etc. and their importance in your life.
- Your work experience, projects or other responsibilities you've been involved in, including paid and volunteer work.
- Relevant awards or recognition that you have received.
- Other information about yourself that makes you uniquely qualified to receive this scholarship.
